

October 2021 CE EVENTS

The Unmaking of the Illusion of Inclusion for Disabled Student Clinicians: The Role of Mattering

Tuesday, October 19 at 6:00 pm

Presented By: Leslie Grubler, MA, CCC-SLP, TSHH

Abstract: Across medical and allied health disciplines, student clinicians with disabilities face obstacles despite the protections afforded by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), fostering an illusion of inclusion. As professionals in the role of intervening with individuals with disabilities, our charge is one informed by our knowledge base, our humanity, our skills in reflective practice and our understanding of reflective supervision. The Unmaking of the Illusion of Inclusion for Disabled Student Clinicians: The Role of Mattering will facilitate the development of mindfulness from which changes in policy, legislation and standards can emanate.

To register for this webinar, go to <http://www.nysslha.org/webinars/>. If you are experiencing any issues with registration, please contact the NYSSLHA Office at info@nysslha.org. NYSSLHA Membership is not required.

Leslie Grubler, MA, CCC-SLP, TSHH is the Director of Clinical Education and Clinical Services at Lehman College, CUNY. A speech-language pathologist, consultant and family and child advocate with experience in treatment and administration through 23 years of practice, Ms. Grubler has advocated for the rights of disabled individuals throughout her entire career from New York City Hall, to Albany, to Washington, DC. Currently, her research focus is student clinicians with invisible disabilities.

